

Geographic Information Systems

The Geographic Information Systems Career Focus is one of the many high school programs in New Hampshire that provide students with preparation and training in real world curriculum.

Start mapping the future of the technology industry today!

Do you enjoy SIMS? Then Geographical Information Systems is for you. GIS is a computer-based mapping program that works with multiple applications. If you are interested in environmental conservation, healthcare, logistics or planning, investigate GIS today.

Certificate programs, associate degree, bachelor degree and postgraduate degree opportunities are available right here in New Hampshire.

You COULD be earning college credit now!

GIS careers include:

- Cartographer
- GIS Technician
- Civil Engineer
- Community Planner
- Forester

Several fields use GIS applications, including:

- Natural Resources
- Health Care
- Transportation
- Homeland Security

Why participate in the GIS Career Focus?

- Starting now will provide you with a strong academic head start for college and for the rest of your career training.
- Some colleges offer advanced credit or standing for courses completed in high school.
- The GIS Career Focus has strong employer support from a wide range of groups and agencies throughout the state, giving you an earlier opportunity to network.
- Now is the time to start thinking about whether Geographic Information Systems is the right career for you.

Check with:

to join the GEOGRAPHIC
INFORMATION SYSTEMS
CAREER FOCUS NOW!