Adult Roles and Responsibilities
Course Content Standards and Competencies

Adult Roles: Students will understand the impact of adult role models on the individual, family, workplace, and community.

ARR-AR Competency 1: Students will analyze roles and responsibilities of positive adult role models including parenting, mentoring and teaching.

Indicators:
- Examine expectations and responsibilities of an adult role model across the lifespan.
- Determine and evaluate the consequences of adult behaviors.
- Identify factors that influence growth and development.
- Identify societal conditions that impact adults.

ARR-AR Competency 2: Students will evaluate external support systems that provide services.

Indicators:
- Identify community resources that provide services to individuals and/or groups.
- Research community resources that provide services to individuals and/or groups.
- Evaluate community resources that provide services to individuals and/or groups.

ARR-AR Competency 3: Students will demonstrate knowledge of diverse perspectives, needs, and characteristics of individuals and groups.

Indicators:
- Explore various cultures and traditions.
- Explore diverse perspectives including anti-bias, gender, equality, age, culture, traditions, and ethnicity.
- Demonstrate sensitivity to differences in others.

Application and Assessment through FCCLA:

National Programs
- Career Connection
- Families First
- Power of One
- Student Body
- Dynamic Leadership
- Leaders at Work
- Community Service

STAR Events
- Applied Technology
- Career Investigation
- Job Interview
- Interpersonal Communication
- Financial Fitness
- National Programs in Action
Resources:

Strong Stuff: Mother’s Stories, Emily Moore, ISBN 1-58500-562-2