INTERPRETER LICENSING

The
New Hampshire
Board of Licensure
of Interpreters for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing

THE LAW REQUIRES LICENSED INTERPRETERS FOR DEAF AND HARD OF HEARING CITIZENS

The Interpreter Licensure law has been in effect since 2003. According to the law, interpreters for the deaf and hard of hearing must hold a license in order to receive compensation and to practice as an interpreter in New Hampshire.

REQUIREMENTS FOR LICENSURE

- *Candidates must be at least 18 years of age
- *Candidates must be certified by the National Association of the Deaf/Registry of Interpreters for the Deaf (NAD-RID), the New Hampshire Interpreter Classification System or an approved state screening that is at least equal to the New Hampshire requirements
- *Candidates must adhere to the Code of Professional Conduct (Code of Ethics) and, by doing so, demonstrate evidence of good professional character

EXEMPTIONS

- *Interpreters working in certain emergency situations
 - *Supervised interpreting students
 - *Interpreters working in religious settings
 - *Non-resident interpreters who hold a legal specialty certificate (SC:L) or who have completed RID-approved legal interpreter training, working in legal settings in New Hampshire, are not required to be licensed, but are subject to disciplinary procedures of the board
 - *Interpreters working in K-12 settings for deaf or hard of hearing students in instructional or extra curricular activities must obtain certification from the Department of Education
- Note: Persons using an interpreter may request to see an interpreter's license. Unless the interpreter comes under one of the above exemptions, the interpreter must present their license when requested.

WAIVER

A deaf or hard of hearing person may apply to the Department of Education for a waiver from using a licensed interpreter. To learn about waivers or to file a waiver, please refer to the website below. A new application for waiver must be approved each time a waiver is granted.
