

2010 AYP Release and Appeals Process Timeline

Wednesday, April 7, 2010	Public notification of school and district 2010 AYP results
Thursday, April 8, 2010	First day for school principals to submit an appeal to district officials. (Day 1 of the 30-day appeals process begins).
Tuesday, April 13, 2010	Understanding AYP and Growth Reports workshop. Participants should bring their reports to examine as part of the workshop. (9:00 a.m. - noon, PSU Concord)
Tuesday, April 13, 2010	Filing an Appeal workshop. This session will provide an overview of the documents to be submitted when filing a school or district appeal. (1:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m, PSU Concord)
Friday, April 16, 2010 (4:30 p.m.)	Intent to Appeal filing deadline. Last day for district officials to submit the Intent to Appeal form for a school and/or district AYP appeal.
Friday, April 30, 2010 (4:30 p.m.)	Deadline for Commissioner of Education to receive school and district appeals approved and certified by school district officials
Friday, May 7, 2010	Commissioner's AYP Appeals decision letters sent to district officials. AYP determinations and School or District in Need of Improvement designations for 2010-2011 become official.
Friday, May 28, 2010 (4:30 p.m.)	Deadline for school or district appeals to the NH State Board of Education.

We strongly recommend that any NEW Superintendents or NEW building administrators attend the Understanding AYP Workshop in preparation for inquiries from school district staff, parents, and community members.