This webinar will help Teaching Strategies GOLD users learn how best to prepare children for later success with the Common Core Standards. The webinar will explore ways that your teaching practice can support children's success in school.

4. Footsteps2Brilliance - Technology Platform that assesses children while they play -

Footsteps2Brilliance is a new digital early childhood curriculum, developed by Ilene Rosenthal, that accelerates student achievement through mobile devices and gaming to build literacy and critical thinking 24/7. The digital curriculum is designed to build academic language while providing authentic assessments that review a child's progress in comprehension, vocabulary and writing.
