

Statewide MSP Science Support: LESCEN Professional Development Centers

The purpose of this project is to provide regionally diverse locations for professional development activities about science standards, science frameworks and related professional development - which may include videoconferencing.