

P= What did you like? C= What are your concerns? I= Connections, things to think about

NHDOE Special Education Program Approval and Improvement Process

March 30, 2010

PCI for Case Study Orientation for Private Schools

P Positives	C Concerns	I Interesting Insights
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆◆Learning Skills Academy: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Knowledgeable presenters -Well organized -SERESC personnel is so upbeat- Clearly believers in their positions and the process ◆◆Monarch School: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Great overview of process -Also very helpful to hear from schools that have recently gone through the process. -Also nice to learn about more private schools in NH who are serving students with disabilities -I like that LEA reps. are being invited. -Self-reflection is not a punitive process. -Sharing session -Collaborative process to ensure education of all students -Informative for someone who is new to process 		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Always enlightening to hear from and share with other private providers -Again very helpful to get insight from professionals that have gone through the process -Visit other teams -Get policy procedure template ahead of time -It was good to hear from others who had gone through the process recently and to know that they see it as a positive experience.

◆◆Other: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Nice to hear other On-site reviews -Best information I got today- “This is a collaborative effort to ensure quality.” -Well done & well organized; Excellent review of process -Meeting the consultants -Going over the changes -Hearing other people’s experiences -Meeting and seeing how programs like us go through the Process -Great overview of process 	-Policies and Procedures are a lot of work!	-Correct way to utilize consultant list -Knowing what to expect
--	--	---

Questions I still have:

Learning Skills Academy:

I truly hope to be able to see / use the P/P Manual. It would help with my time management.

Monarch School:

Curriculum supports given on varied population / needs