RE: New Complaint Manual

The Bureau of Special Education is pleased to announce a Special Education Complaint Manual. The Manual, with the assistance of a group of stakeholders, was developed over the past several months to provide guidance and information about the 60 day complaint process required by federal and state law.

The Special Education Complaint Manual is intended to be a guidance document and is not meant to replace any laws or rules that are in effect.

The Manual is available on the NHDOE's website:

http://www.education.nh.gov/instruction/special_ed/complaint.htm

The Bureau will provide the document in a paper format (alternative formats available) upon request.

For more information, please contact Terry Brune at: (603) 271-3730 or tbrune@ed.state.nh.us.
