In December 2007, RMC Research was contracted to serve as external evaluation coordinator and technical assistance provider for the NH MSP program. In this capacity, RMC Research examined evaluation efforts across the funded projects by analyzing individual project proposals, which included evaluation plans. RMC Research provided individual project technical assistance to enhance the overall quality of the proposed work, focusing on alignment and elaboration of the evaluation design, and designing and delivering common instruments for administration across projects.