

Rosenwald Schools

Multiple-Choice Questions

Booker T. Washington was:

- A former slave
- A famous educator
- A bestselling author
- All of the above

The Rosenwald schools were funded:

- By Booker T. Washington
- By Julius Rosenwald
- By a combination of private philanthropy and local investment
- By the federal government

The Rosenwald schools were built:

- Throughout the Northeast
- Throughout the Southeast
- Throughout the Midwest
- In the Southwest

The end of the Rosenwald schools era was primarily caused by:

- Running out of money
- Running out of enthusiasm
- A Supreme Court ruling
- Changes in construction technology

Famous Americans educated in Rosenwald schools include:

- Congressman John Lewis
- Poet Maya Angelou
- Barack Obama
- Lewis and Angelou only

Rosenwald Schools

Multiple-Choice Questions with ANSWERS

Booker T. Washington was:

- A former slave
- A famous educator
- A bestselling author
- All of the above

The Rosenwald schools were funded:

- By Booker T. Washington
- By Julius Rosenwald
- By a combination of private philanthropy and local investment
- By the federal government

The Rosenwald schools were built:

- Throughout the Northeast
- Throughout the Southeast
- Throughout the Midwest
- Throughout the Southwest

The end of the Rosenwald schools era was primarily caused by:

- Running out of money
- Running out of enthusiasm
- A Supreme Court ruling
- Changes in construction technology

Famous Americans educated in Rosenwald schools include:

- Congressman John Lewis
- Poet Maya Angelou
- Barack Obama
- Lewis and Angelou only