The Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA 2004) requires that school districts provide parents a copy of the procedural safeguards (parental rights) only one time a school year. The Procedural Safeguards are given to parents, adult students with disabilities, educators and others to provide information about parent/child rights in the special education process. There are additional times when a copy must be given to you: (1) upon initial referral or parent request for evaluation; (2) upon receipt of the first State complaint or the first due process complaint in a school year; (3) when a decision is made to take a disciplinary action that constitutes a change of placement; and (4) upon parent request.

☐ If this box is checked, we have attached a copy of the Procedural Safeguards Handbook.

Please detach and return the following acknowledgement to the school district contact person on page 1 or you may call with your response.
